Middle School Sports

Events

This week has been an exciting week for our KSA students. The year 9 and 10 girls football team came 2nd in the annual Westminster football tournament, losing to St George's in a penalty shoot-out! Well done to the following in the team:

Year 9 – Nora, Rawane, Temi, Farrah, Fouzia, Manar, Amani, Abi

Year 10 – Zahira, Hanae, Lamia, Parys, Sara J

Cross country

Well done to all that competed in the annual Westminster cross country competition.

Noor and Akram (year 8) finished top 10 and great efforts from Amani, Soda, Hussein, Precious, Alexandra, Kareem, Bilal, Hind and Taj.

Fixtures

The year 8 boys football fixtures continue and they have 4 games left in their season.

Games left – 18/10, 6/11, 13/11 and 20/11

MAPP average scores

- Improvements this week! 3 classes are in the running. They need an average score of 3.6 (out of 4). Well done to Cardiff – will they maintain their efforts until the Monday night cut-off?

1. Cardiff 3.61 – hanging on!
2. Lille 3.58 – so close!
3. Liverpool 3.57 – nearly there!

Payslip and attendance heroes

- Congratulations to Ms Manley and 7 Sorbonne for having 99.3% attendance this week (from Friday to Thursday) – thank you parents for all your support in getting your children to school every day and on time
- Joint top payslips in year 7 this week are Ali Alradhawi, Jana Saffiedine and Precious Barr Merino with a 154 each!
- Joint top payslips in year 8 this week are Faizah Hussain and Alishba Ali-Islam both with a 160!
- Top payslip in year 9 this week was Sarah Ezbakh with 168!
- Well done to these pupils for leading the way in their year groups
